ABOUT ME

I'm a full-stack web developer. I have experience creating responsive, functional and attractive websites using HTML, CSS and JavaScript. I also have knowledge of PHP and MySQL. I consider myself a creative, proactive and detail-oriented person. My goal is to keep learning and improving my skills as a web developer, and to work in a company that offers me opportunities for growth and professional development. I'm especially interested in the sector of new technologies and innovation.
